The British Horse Society Diamond Jubilee

1947-2007

Over the past 60 years the BHS has achieved many notable successes, gaining a worldwide reputation along the way, in fields such as training and education, horse welfare and access. To celebrate its Diamond Jubilee, the BHS has teamed up with Heart-In Diamond to offer one lucky winner the amazing prize of a totally unique diamond.

The 1/4 carat, 100% true, fancy yellow princess cut personalised diamond (worth £1,500) produced for the winner can be created using carbon extracted from a lock of hair from a horse, person or pet. It's the perfect way to set your loving bond in stone – forever.

To enter this free prize draw, simply complete the attached competition entry form and send it to the address given. The closing date is 31/12/07 and the winner will be notified by 31/01/08.

About Heart-In Diamond

A Heart-In Diamond is a personalised diamond, intended for those who look for a personal and sophisticated gift – to mark a significant event or a special life bond – which in the form of a diamond will last forever.

Heart-In diamonds are certified by the UK's leading gemmological authority, AnchorCert.

What is The British Horse Society?

- We are the UK's largest and most influential equestrian charity;
- We are a registered charity, overseen by the Charity Commissioners, and our patron is Her Majesty the Queen;
- Among other things, we are concerned with horse welfare, horse and rider safety, access and rights of way, training, and approving livery yards and riding schools.

Some BHS achievements

- We responded to more than 30,000 welfare related enquiries in 2006;
- We have created more than 400 miles of promoted routes linking existing rights of way into an ever-expanding 'Ride UK' network of scenic rides;
- We are globally monitoring more than 900 approved riding schools and livery yards to ensure high standards are maintained;
- We work closely with the government on issues that concern you!
